

ADULT REDEPLOY ILLINOIS

ADULT REDEPLOY ILLINOIS – SFY18

Site descriptions & contacts

Each Adult Redeploy Illinois (ARI) site is unique, designed and controlled by local stakeholders. More than 40 funded diversion programs at 22 sites cover 45 counties, and include problem-solving courts (drug courts, mental health courts, veterans courts) and intensive supervision probation with services programs for different target populations. Brief descriptions and contact information for each of the sites follow.

2nd JUDICIAL CIRCUIT became an ARI site in July 2013 to expand its drug court model circuit-wide, including Crawford County (an ARI site since November 2012). As of February 2016, twelve counties in the vast 2nd Judicial Circuit operate a county drug court administered by a Specialty Courts Program Coordinator. Operated out of the 2nd Judicial Circuit Court Services Department, the drug courts integrate risk assessments, clinical assessments, efficient drug testing, a mental health court planning initiative, and a circuit-wide evaluation component. The circuit-wide program is a partnership between the 2nd Judicial Circuit Specialty Courts Committee; Center for Prevention Research and Development at the University of Illinois; local treatment providers; and other community organizations.

4th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT became an ARI site in July 2013. ARI funding is being used for mental health courts with a veterans treatment track in two of the nine counties in the circuit, Christian and Effingham Counties. Operated out of the Effingham County Probation Department, the 4th Judicial Circuit program consists of mental health treatment services such as psychiatric evaluations, medication stabilization, and individual and group counseling. A partnership with a Veteran Justice Outreach Specialist at the Veterans Administration assists to implement a specialized veteran's treatment track. Effingham County implements a community restorative program, Communities Restoring Wellness (CRW), at a local treatment provider, The Wellness Loft. Partners include Effingham County Probation Department, Christian County Probation Department, Effingham County State's Attorney's Office, Effingham County Public Defender's Office, Christian County Sheriff's Office, Effingham County drug court judge, Christian County drug court judge, and other community providers. New In January 2018, the 4th Judicial Circuit is using additional ARI funds to expand treatment, case management, mentoring, and wrap-around services to Clay, Fayette and Jasper County drug courts.

20th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT – THREE PROGRAMS

MONROE COUNTY and RANDOLPH COUNTY began receiving ARI funding as part of the 20th Judicial Circuit site in February 2015. The Monroe County ARI program is a high-risk behavioral health docket with enhanced services through a partnership with Human Support Services. The program consists of expanded treatment, expanded cognitive behavioral therapy, case management, ancillary services, and a community restorative board. The Randolph County ARI program is known as the Second Chance Citizen Reentry Program, a behavioral health program consisting of a four-phase 12-month employment program, cognitive behavioral therapy (Moral Reconation Therapy), and community service projects. Operated out of the 20th Judicial Circuit Court Services Department, the programs are a partnership between Monroe County probation, Monroe County State's Attorney's Office, Human Support Services, Randolph County probation, and other community partners.

ST. CLAIR COUNTY was one of the original ARI sites in January 2011 and utilizes funding for its intensive probation supervision with services program for mentally ill non-violent offenders. The program provides reduced caseloads, cognitive behavioral therapy, trauma therapy, dual-disorder treatment, and a community restorative element, as well as counseling, drug treatment, medication assistance, and transitional housing. Operating out of the probation department, the St. Clair County ARI program works with a jail crisis worker to identify potential participants who have serious mental illnesses that may be underlying their criminal behavior. Partners include 20th Judicial Circuit judiciary, 20th Judicial Circuit Court Services and Probation Department, St. Clair County Mental Health Board, and other community partners.

COOK COUNTY ARI – TWO PROGRAMS:

COOK COUNTY ARI (HOPE program) became an ARI site in October 2011 to establish a probation violation program, based on Hawaii’s evidence-based Honest Opportunity Probation with Enforcement (HOPE) program. A partnership among the Circuit Court of Cook County, Cook County Adult Probation Department, State’s Attorney’s Office, Public Defender’s Office, Sheriff’s Office, and coordinated by Office of the Chief Judge, this program emphasizes swift, certain, and predictable sanctions for probation violations, while increasing access to supportive services including cognitive behavioral and trauma therapy.

COOK COUNTY ACCESS TO COMMUNITY TREATMENT (ACT) COURT received a planning grant in SFY13 to plan and create the Access to Community Treatment (ACT) Court targeting prison-bound offenders with identified substance abuse treatment needs. The program began in October 2013 and emphasizes rapid access to community-based treatment, enrollment in the CountyCare (via Medicaid expansion), and integration of court supervision and community-based treatment. Governed by a steering committee that also oversees the HOPE program, the ACT Court is a partnership between the Circuit Court of Cook County, Cook County Public Defender’s Office, Cook County State’s Attorney’s Office, Cook County Adult Probation Department, Treatment Alternatives for Safe Communities, Inc. (TASC), and community treatment providers.
