Grants	Each grant consists of an interagency agreement, a program narrative (Exhibit A), and budget and budget narrative (Exhibit B). The grant master file would also contain required data and fiscal reports, and other documents related to monitoring the grant.
Byrne Formula Grant Program	This program is designed to provide financial assistance to state and units of local government, for the purpose of increasing the apprehension, prosecution, adjudication, detention, rehabilitation, eradication, and treatment of persons who violate state and local laws relating to violent crime, the production, possession and transfer of controlled substances, and to improve the criminal justice system. This grant has been discontinued by the federal government and replaced by JAG. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
CMA	The Edward Byrne Memorial Discretionary Grants Program (Byrne Discretionary Program) helps local communities improve the capacity of local justice systems and provides for national support efforts. Funds should be used for purposes mandated by Congress. In 2008, Metropolitan Family Services was invited to apply for a grant to combat elder abuse in the Illinois' Second Congressional District. Metropolitan Family Services partner with the law enforcement, geriatricians, attorneys and other key services to create the Coordinated Response Initiative (CRI) which will address serious crimes of abuse, neglect and financial exploitation against older adults of Illinois' 2nd Congressional District in Chicago. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG)	The intent of the JABG program is to provide states and units of local government with funds to develop programs to promote greater accountability in the juvenile justice system. As such, JABG funds must be used to address one or more of the 12 program purpose areas contained in the legislation which generated the JABG funds. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
Justice Assistance Grant (JAG)	The JAG program was designed to streamline justice funding and grant administration. The program blends funding for Edward Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance (also known as ADAA) and Local Law Enforcement Block Grant (LLEBG) programs to provide agencies with the flexibility to prioritize and place justice funds where they are needed most. Byrne grants supports government programs that enable the enforcement of Illinois drug laws and help decrease the likelihood of violent crime. JAG funds can be used for state and local initiatives, technical assistance, training, personnel, equipment, supplies, contractual support, and information systems for criminal justice for any one or more of the following purpose areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Law enforcement ■ Prosecution and court. ■ Prevention and education. ■ Corrections and community corrections. ■ Drug treatment programs. ■ Planning, evaluation, and technology improvement. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the

	ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
JAG (ARRA)	JAG (ARRA) can be used for the same activities as JAG but funded under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
Local Law Enforcement Block Grants Program (LLBG)	LLBG grants are provided to local governments for the purpose of reducing crime and improving public safety. This grant has been discontinued by the federal government and replaced by JAG. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
MVTPC Grants	Grant funds awarded by the Motor Vehicle Theft Prevention Council are used to improve motor vehicle theft law enforcement by establishing and supporting multijurisdictional task forces, investigative teams, and other anti-theft efforts throughout the state. Individual grant award information can be found on the Council's website.
National Instant Criminal Background Check System Act Record Improvement Program (NARIP)	The purpose of the NARIP grant is to improve the records utilized by NICS by providing assistance to states to improve the completeness, automation, and transmittal of records to state and federal systems. Such records include criminal history records, records of felony convictions, warrants, records of protective orders, convictions for misdemeanors involving domestic violence and stalking, records of mental health adjudications, and others, which may disqualify an individual from possessing or receiving a firearm under federal law. Helping states to automate these records will also reduce delays for law-abiding gun purchasers. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
National Criminal History Improvement Program (NCHIP)	NCHIP was created to ensure that accurate records are available for use in law enforcement, including sex offender registry requirements, and to protect public safety and national security. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
National Forensic Science Improvement Act (NFSIA)	In general, the NFSIA program provides funding to crime laboratories and medical examiner's offices through the State Administrating Agency (SAA) based on population and crime statistics. The program permits funding for expenses related to facilities, personnel, computerization, equipment, supplies, accreditation, certification, education, and training. NFSIA requires that States receiving a grant under the program use the award to carry out all or a substantial part of a program to improve the quality and timeliness of forensic science or medical examiner services in the State. Included are those services provided by laboratories or medical examiner's offices operated by the State and those operated by units of local government within the State. Funds may not be used for any general law enforcement or non-forensic investigatory function. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
Post-conviction DNA test (PDNAT)	PDNAT grant program provides funding to help defray the costs associated with post-conviction DNA testing of forcible rape, murder, and non-negligent manslaughter cases in which actual innocence might be demonstrated. Funds may be used to review such post-conviction cases and to locate and analyze biological evidence associated with these cases. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
President-Elect Security Assistance Reimbursement Program (PESAR)	PESAR provides reimbursement funds for state and local agencies that engaged in security-related activities for the President-elect during the period of 11:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) November 4, 2008, through 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time) January 18, 2009. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section.
Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN)	PSN is a nationwide commitment to reduce gun crime in America by networking existing local programs that target gun crime and providing these programs with additional tools necessary to be successful. This funding is being used to hire new federal and state prosecutors, support investigators, provide training, distribute gun lock safety kits, deter juvenile gun crime, and develop and promote community outreach efforts as well as to support other gun violence reduction strategies. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .

PSN Anti-gang	PSN anti-gang is a nationwide commitment to reduce gang crime in America by networking existing local programs that target gun crime and providing these programs with additional tools necessary to be successful. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Residential Substance Abuse Treatment (RSAT)	The RSAT program provides grants to assist states and units of local governments with developing and implementing residential substance abuse programs within state and local correctional facilities. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA)	The Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) is Title I of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (Public Law 109-248). SORNA provides a comprehensive set of minimum standards for sex offender registration and notification in the United States. SORNA aims to close potential gaps and loopholes that existed under prior law and generally strengthens the nationwide network of sex offender registration and notification programs. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)	VAWA grants are available to assist governments in developing, implementing and strengthening effective law enforcement strategies to combat violent crimes against women, to improve the criminal justice system's response to violence against women, and to develop and strengthen victim services. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
VAWA ARRA	VAWA ARRA can be used for the same activities as VAWA but funded under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Violence Against Women Act Rural Program (VAAWA Rural)	VAWA Rural recognizes that child, youth and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking living in rural jurisdictions face unique barriers to receiving assistance and additional challenges rarely encountered in urban areas. The geographic isolation, economic structure, particularly strong social and cultural pressures, and lack of available services in rural jurisdictions significantly compound the problems confronted by those seeking support and services to end the violence in their lives and complicate the ability of the criminal justice system to investigate and prosecute domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking cases. In addition, socio-cultural, economic, and geographic barriers create difficulties for victim service providers and other social services professionals to identify and assist victims of these crimes. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Violence Against Women Act Sexual Assault Service Program (SASP)	VAWA SASP was created in the reauthorization of the VAWA in 2005. It is a formula grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Violence Against Women. SASP is the first federal funding stream solely dedicated to the provision of direct intervention and related assistance for victims of sexual assault. Overall, the purpose of SASP is to provide intervention, advocacy, accompaniment, support services, and related assistance for adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims, and those collaterally affected by the sexual assault. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Violent Offender Incarceration and Truth-In-Sentencing Incentive (VOITIS)	The VOITIS grants program is to provide assistance to state and local governments to construct, expand, develop, modify, operate or improve correctional facilities. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
Victims of Crime Act (VOCA)	VOCA was established in 1984 as a special fund to hold criminal fines that are collected from persons convicted of federal crimes. Grants are made available for state assistance based on population and made available for a variety of victim programs statewide. Funds are used only for providing direct services to victims of crime. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .

VOCA ARRA	VOCA ARRA can be used for the same activities as VOCA but funded under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. Individual grant award information can be found on the Authority's website, under the ICJIA Administered Grant Programs Section .
