

The Chicago Crime Commission,
The Coalition Against Child Exploitation & Prostitution, ComEd
and The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children

invite you to attend a complimentary, one-day conference on Child Exploitation & Prostitution

Thursday, September 30, 2004
7:30 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.

This complimentary conference will provide service providers, social workers, psychologists, counselors, business leaders, law enforcement, and researchers with critical information to help them in their continued efforts to stop child exploitation and prostitution. Join us at this day-long conference to hear from experts and to identify ways in which law enforcement, in cooperation with other academic, business, and community-based organizations, can effectively address this serious problem.

Topics covered in the conference will include:

- Dynamics of Problem & Child Exploitation
- Pimp and Prostitute Subculture
- Risk & Protective Factors: Responses to Prevention and Victims of Child Prostitution

The conference will be held at:

The Stonegate Meeting & Conference Centre
2401 West Higgins (Higgins & Barrington Road), Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195
For directions, please e-mail info@thestonegate.com or call 847-884-7000.

To attend this conference, please complete the form below and return it to Katie Kirby via e-mail at info@chicagocrimecommission.org or via facsimile at 312-372-6286. The deadline for conference registration is Friday, September 17, 2004.
